BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BECHUANALAND PROTECTORATE AND THE TWO WORLD WARS

Note 1 : Ten thousand Bechuana (Batswana) men from Bechuanaland served in the British Army together with Basuto (Basotho) and Swazi from Basutoland and Swaziland during World War II; lesser numbers served in the Union (of South Africa) Defence Force in World Wars I & II. For general discussion of this literature see Jackson in Journal of Military History (2002) below. For a succinct account of Bechuana soldiers in World War II see Ramsay &c. (2007) below.

Note 2 : The bibliography that follows includes some key comparative works on neighbouring countries and accounts of campaigns in which Bechuana troops took part (even though they do not feature in these publications).
