

Supplemental Figure 1: Mass spectrum of an ammonium sulfate particle is shown in Panel (a). Individual ion peaks are specified in arbitrary units (au.) of detector signal versus mass to charge ratio (m/z). Mass spectrum of a polystyrene latex sphere is shown in Panel (b) using the same convention. Note the different peaks allow an unambiguous differentiation of these particle types.