

Process of Mg/Ca to temperature correlation. The last min - min cycle is considered to represent a yearly cycle. Shell extension rates are determined by measuring the spatial distance between two Mg/Ca max. peaks.