

Reviewer Report

Title: DENTIST “ using long reads for closing assembly gaps at high accuracy

Version: Revision 1 Date: 12/8/2021

Reviewer name: Edward Rice

Reviewer Comments to Author:

The authors have thoroughly and satisfactorily addressed all of my comments and the comments of the other reviewers. After testing the latest version, I can confidently say ease of use is much improved as it took me less than five minutes to go from zero to successfully starting a run of the example. I am therefore happy to recommend this manuscript for publication in its current form.
