

Tagungsankündigung / Conference Announcement

“The Czech Approach to Word Formation in the Context of Slavic Linguistics” (September 21–23, 2022; Prague, Czech Republic)

Contact Person: Václav Čermák (organizing committee chairman), Ivana Bozděchová (programme committee chairwoman)

Meeting Description:

The aim of this event is to remember Miloš Dokulil's life and his work, to evaluate the influence of the Czech word-formation approach on other word-formation research, to introduce current projects and research in the area of Slavic word formation which are inspired by M. Dokulil's scientific contribution and which enrich and further develop it:

- M. Dokulil's life and work in the context of the history of linguistics
- Word formation in the language system
- Word formation in Slavic languages
- The possibilities and limits of word-formation research – theoretical and methodological aspects

Conference Languages: all Slavic, English

A hybrid form of the event is being considered.

Call for Papers is already closed.

<http://dokulil.slu.cas.cz/en>